A Word From Our Pastor...

Hello everyone!

We are into the Lenten season, and I will be sending out to you, through Karin, our wonderful secretary, things to ponder and discuss on a weekly basis. You should have started receiving them, possibly before you get this newsletter. Look for it each week and when you stop by the church, or even call the church, we can discuss the items that you read about. The first week will be "Dust" and the following weeks will be these subjects: "Bread," "The Cross," "Coins," "Oil," "Coats, Towels, and Thorns and Stones." All these topics are a part of Lent and Easter. We will explore them (I hope enough), to pull most of you into thinking of them and discussing them.

We are still asking for prayers for JayE and her eyesight. Of course, we will update you when we have anything new.

Think about this, a pot of water put on to boil. As it heats up, you have only three items to put in the pot—a carrot, an egg, and a coffee bean. After you boil the carrot, it changes and becomes soft. After you boil the egg, it solidifies and becomes hard. In life either one, or both, can be you. The troubles of life can make you weak and you lose your way, or it can make you hard and you become bitter, cold, and unloving. When we let Jesus in our being and follow the scriptures God has given us to have full, productive, loving, fulfilling, and forgiving lives, we become the coffee bean. The carrot and the egg changed in the hot water, but the coffee bean changed the water. Jesus wants us to be like Him, to be an agent for changing into the image of God. Just an analogy to ponder.

May the Lord cause His face to shine upon you and His Spirit to lead you in all things, Pastor Charley

A Note from Our Building & Grounds Committee

As all of you know, the church has been undergoing some updating and renovations over the last few months. In order to get the most out of our hard work, we are asking that no tape, labels, etc. be posted on the new paint or other surfaces without permission from the committee. Sometimes when labels, tape, etc. are removed, they can remove the finish off the item, and we would like to prevent that from happening. Also, for safety's sake, please don't move major pieces of furniture without first talking to the committee. Change is not always easy for us, but a lot of planning and collaboration has gone into making FPC, Bay City the best it can be. We appreciate your support!

you. These songs are wonderful yet will not always speak to the person beside you in the same manner.

When selecting songs for worship and attempting to meet the emotional and spiritual needs of each person in our congregation, I won't always hit the mark for everyone, yet hope I will be successful with some.

Your Sister in Christ,

Donna Baskin

From the Music Stand.....

Let's play a game! This is not hard. I will give you several topic words and will then ask you which song comes to mind. Love, Joy, Peace, Soldier, Praise, and Home. Were you able to recall a song name or some lyric phrases that would match the topic?

This is what the pastor and I strive to do for each service; we seek to connect the music with the message. All the hymns and choruses in hymnals strive to teach, recite scriptures, and to provide a message through the song. Church ministers like to use the songs to set the tone, to help prepare the listeners' hearts for the message God has inspired them to present.

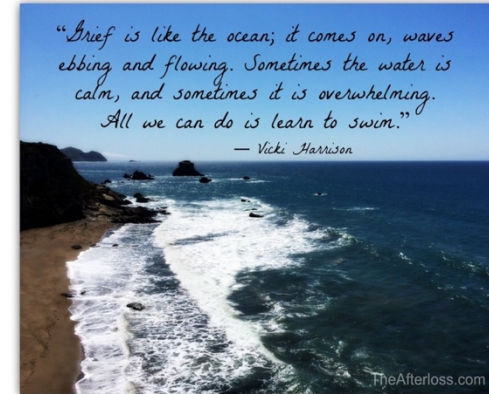

I do understand that everyone has a style they enjoy listening or worshipping to, but since a congregation is made up of many different people, with many different ideas, the attempt to meet as many various preferences as possible can be daunting. In doing some research, I found some scriptures to help me support my thinking (and no, I am not taking them out of context). Matthew 11:17 says "we have been given songs for weddings yet there was no rejoicing with dance; we played funeral songs of sadness and still there was no mourning." There is basically no pleasing everybody, which means we strive for a happy safe zone during our worship service.

Friends, I say that all songs are for our worship service. They may not be to everyone's preference, but they do serve a purpose.

With the above listed songs, these are what immediately come to my mind: Love—"Love Lifted Me;" Joy—"I've Got the Joy, Joy, Joy, Joy, (Down in My Heart;" Peace—"I've Got Peace Like a River;" Soldier—"I'm in the Lord's Army;" Praise—"Praise Him, Praise Him;" Home—"Poor Wayfaring Stranger."

These songs speak to me for various reasons and, consequently, they are forever in my heart and mind. I'm sure there are songs you grew up with, or songs that have made a home in your heart for reasons that are special to
